

WORCESTERSHIRE ORGANISTS' ASSOCIATION

Registered Charity No. 508222

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. From May 2018 the processing of personal data has been governed by the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR).

2. Who are we?

The Worcestershire Organists' Association (hereafter "the WOA") is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The WOA complies with its obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

The WOA use personal data for the following purposes:

- to administer membership records;
- to promote the interests of the association;
- to maintain its own accounts and records;
- to inform members of news, events, meetings, activities of the WOA, and such other related information as may be of interest to members;
- to comply with its membership of the Incorporated Association of Organists (hereafter "the IAO")
- and does not keep special category data.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

The WOA relies on the legal basis of contract (for its members) and explicit consent (for others with whom it has contact) identified by the GDPR to keep them informed of news, events, and activities of the WOA.

5. Sharing your personal data

Personal data will be treated as strictly confidential. Other than as required for its membership of the IAO the WOA will never share personal data with third parties without your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data

Other than required for accounting and compliance purposes (such as for Gift Aid claims) the WOA keeps personal data for no more than 12 months after you cease to be a member of WOA.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

- the right to request a copy of your personal data which the WOA holds about you;
- the right to request that the WOA corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- the right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the WOA to retain such data;
- the right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- the right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office.

8. Further processing

If the WOA wishes to use personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then the WOA will provide data subjects with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions.

9. Contact details
